

PASSPORT TO BROADWAY INDONESIA IN NEW YORK STUDENT CONTRACT

Please read before signing, as this constitutes your child's commitment as a requirement for participation in the OudPro and Passport to Broadway Musical Theater Intensive from July 3-14, 2018. This form must be executed by the parent or legal guardian in order to participate in this Passport to Broadway experience. Passport to Broadway is designed to bring about transformation while integrating the highest standards of professional musical theater training and immersion in learning this important art form in a rigorous and demanding schedule. A well done experience may significantly advance students' emotion, social, character and practical knowledge and theater skill sets while meeting the desired educational goals. Passport to Broadway seeks to specifically challenge and prepare the students of OUDPRO to be competitive in the careers of their choice and to attain significant growth and change. In order to maximize the potential of this experience for each participant and in order to appropriately represent Passport to Broadway, its representatives in the Broadway community with in this experience, Passport to Broadway requires all participant's parents or legal guardians to read, agree to and execute the following:

- I commit to attending and participating in all rehearsals and classes as designated in the schedule I will receive in advance of my commitment or to be exempted only by permission, in advance.
- I will review and be familiar with all materials Passport to Broadway provides in advance and during the workshop rehearsal process, and other materials required and to complete all homework requested by their due dates.
- I will honor and respect the etiquette and professional protocol of the highest standards set forth by Passport to Broadway for professional behavior in the rehearsal room and theater including but not limited to contributing to a non-judgmental and safe rehearsal atmosphere in order to explore the widest range and opportunity for individual growth and expression for both me and my fellow cast mates. All exploration and work done in the workshop and rehearsal process by me shall remain strictly confidential and should not be discussed with anyone outside of the process without the permission of the respective student.
- I will honor and respect the rules of the classroom and process while involved including understanding the essence of what is behind the demands for excellence.
- I will engage as an integral part of the cast and will commit to apply the direction given by Passport to Broadway with an open mind.
- I will fulfill responsibilities associated with his/her assigned role in the overall project or in various ongoing responsibilities as a member of this cast.
- I will be on time for all events, during rehearsal and show required times.
- I will work to promote a positive cast experience. When differences arise, I will be patient, forgiving, and gracious with fellow cast, directors and teachers.

- I will be flexible when plans change. I will be up as early as necessary and will be properly warmed up and mentally prepared and ready to work on time and throughout the process
- I will ensure to take exceptional care of his/her health and well-being during the rehearsal process including but not limited to, getting sufficient sleep, eating healthy and taking care of body and mind in order to manage the long hours and physical, emotional and mental demands of this rigorous process.
- I will do my best to absorb new experiences and learn from them.
- If while participating in the training for or the participation of this experience, I violate any of the above or the essence of what is behind these principles and professional application of this process as noted above, or when behavior endangers the safety or well-being of my peers or leaders, I understand that Passport to Broadway has the prerogative to remove or replace me from various sections of the final show and in classroom process. If rules continue to be broken after a sufficient warning to me, this may result in dismissal from the final performance and classroom lessons as deemed necessary by StudentsLive to maintain a healthy, positive environment of growth and respect for all involved.
